

Looking Afresh at Narrative

Louise Clifton and Paul Gentle

Our work in 2018

INVISIBLEGRAIL

40 institutional clients

6 open programmes

Bespoke projects (up to 20 days)

INVISIBLEGRAIL

Narrative Challenges facing institutions

Engaging people with our Strategy

Building connections across a team

Bridging professional services v. academic divide

Defining a new ethos and cultural approach

Institution needs to create/refine a narrative (strategy, REF, TEF)

Telling our story to engage public audiences

Improving communication skills

Forging a shared vision

Gaining ownership and commitment to action

Our work in partnership with Organisational Developers

INVISIBLEGRAIL

Immersive experiential learning

Space for creative thinking and reflection

Seeing the world and each other differently through writing and communication

'Crucible learning' – teams doing rather than talking about doing

External provocateurs

Setting intentions and actions based on new connections made

Outcomes: stronger engagement, acknowledgement of power of Emotional Intelligence, strategies, narratives and action plans

INVISIBLEGRAIL

You can help solve institutional problems – if you like this, use it!

Find new colour and shades of purpose in your role and practice

Invisible Grail's Gifts

INVISIBLEGRAIL

Elixir [i'li:kə]
problem at hand with a magical p all 5. a quintesse

Elixir, our monthly newsletter

Facilitation techniques

We ask questions, we listen, we learn, we help

Friday Gift and Tonics

<https://www.invisiblegrail.com/blog/friday-gt/>

Letters and surprise gifts

A blog for SDF

Just to get you thinking...

<https://sdf.ac.uk/4804/just-to-get-you-thinking>

AUA Newslink

Getting your message through

Finding your professional narrative

Blogs

Do you speak Acabusinish?

Distraction: Evil or Art?

INVISIBLEGRAIL

Thank you!

 @InvisibleGrail

@ www.invisiblegrail.com

 invisible-grail