Hiya!

Bonny lads & lasses, welcome to NewcastleGateshead

Welcome to the vibrant capital of North East England, where incredible culture, thrilling sport, superb shopping, exciting nightlife and top-notch cuisine are just waiting to be discovered! Compact and easily navigable, NewcastleGateshead offers a wealth of entertainment and activities, from galleries and museums to theatres and music venues, restaurants, pubs and clubs all within walking distance of each other.

We've got a packed calendar of events for you to enjoy all year round - whether you're looking for exciting live music or exhilarating sporting events, tasty farmers' markets or rib-tickling comedy festivals. It's all served up with a hearty helping of our famous Geordie friendliness, so no matter what your interests, you'll have the Tyne of your life!

Shop 'til you drop!

Whether you're searching for the latest trends or vintage treasures, NewcastleGateshead is a shopper's delight. Intu Metrocentre is Europe's largest indoor shopping and leisure complex, complete with big-name restaurants and an IMAX cinema. In the centre of town, department stores rub shoulders with chic boutiques at intu Eldon Square; while designer labels are all the rage in Monument Mall, Grainger Town and Jesmond.

Scrumptious scan!

With more restaurants per square mile than anywhere else in the North East, you'll never go hungry in NewcastleGateshead! There's an exceptional range of cuisines on offer, from Chinese banquets to cosy Italian bistros, gourmet restaurants and trendy street food venues. How about a pint of locally brewed real ale or a glass of wine in a sophisticated cocktail bar? Whatever your mood, we've got it covered.

A must for culture vultures!

As the sun sets over the famous bridges of the Tyne, there's nowhere better to enjoy a night out than NewcastleGateshead. Enjoy a range of live music, from rock and pop to musicals and classical concerts; experience world-class theatre and side-splitting comedy or head to a club and dance 'til dawn. We Geordies know how to party!

Getting here

With an international airport, fast and frequent rail connections, an international ferry terminal and a number of major road routes, the North East is probably closer than you think.

Air

Newcastle International Airport, voted the Best Large UK Airport in 2015 by Which?, provides a superb link to the rest of the UK, Europe and beyond with direct flights to over 80 destinations. It's only a 20-minute drive or Metro ride from Newcastle city centre, and has a great selection of places to eat and relax, and of course duty-free shopping.

Rail

Experience fantastic views of the Quayside as you roll into Newcastle Central Station by rail. With regular trains from London, the North West and Scotland, it's never been easier to get here. Passengers from London can be in NewcastleGateshead in just over 2 hours 30 minutes while the quickest trains from Edinburgh take just 1 hour 20 minutes. For a bargain break, booking in advance will save you a carriage of cash.

Road

Travelling by road is easy, with a network of major roads, including the A1(M) from the South and Scotland and the A69 from the West, linking NewcastleGateshead with the rest of the country. Once you're here, just park up in one of the many well-signposted car parks. It's so easy to get around, you won't need to get behind the wheel again until you leave!

Sea

The International Ferry Terminal at North Shields is the North of England's main sea link with Northern Europe and one of Europe's most popular cruise ports. DFDS Seaways operates daily sailings to and from Amsterdam.

Getting around

NewcastleGateshead's compact centre and range of travel options mean you won't be wasting time or money on getting around, so that leaves more of both for you to enjoy!

Metro

The Tyne and Wear Metro is a great-value, quick and easy way to get around the region. Travel from NewcastleGateshead to the airport in about 20 minutes, or to the coast and Sunderland in 30 minutes. Buy tickets before travelling and save money by getting a Metro DaySaver ticket or a Pop Pay As You Go card if you're making a few journeys. You can find a Metro map on p67 of this guide.
www.nexus.org.uk/metro

Buses

Tyne and Wear Day Rover tickets are great value, offering unlimited travel (including Metro and Shields Ferry). You can buy these and individual tickets on board the bus. Go North East branded buses take passengers to some of the region's favourite attractions and are easy to spot in town. Look out for the Quaylink buses connecting city centre attractions, the Ten to Metrocentre and the Waggonway 28/28A to Beamish Museum. The Angel 21 bus takes passengers from the city centre to... the Angel of the North.

www.nexus.org.uk/bus

Cycling

Traffic-free trails, forest routes and long-distance rides take you through a variety of terrains - what better way to see the region? Head down to The Cycle Hub in Ouseburn (see p35) for all your cycling needs. You'll find bike hire, repairs and maintenance, a bike shop and café all on site.

The Shields Ferry

Voyage across the mouth of the River Tyne with a swift seven-minute ferry crossing between North Shields and South Shields. Services run every 30 minutes in each direction. Why not treat yourself to some fish and chips in North Shields while you wait for the boat to come in?

www.nexus.org.uk/ferry

Organised tours

Discover more of NewcastleGateshead with personally tailored tours, sightseeing buses, or group excursions, each designed to be as fun as they are informative. See page 23 of this guide for details.

Taxis

NewcastleGateshead has a very walkable city centre; however if you need a taxi to get you to where you want to be, there are plenty of companies to choose from, including EastCoast Taxis (0191 253 3777), LA Taxis (0191 287 7777) and Uber.

10 things not to miss

Get the most out of NewcastleGateshead with our top 10 highlights and attractions

1 | Newcastle Castle

Standing on the site of the fortress from which the city takes its name, Newcastle Castle has one of the finest surviving medieval castle keeps in Britain and offers breathtaking views from its rooftop. (p39)

2 | Quayside and Bridges

Enjoy a stroll along the picturesque Quayside and take in views of our seven bridges spanning the River Tyne. The once industrial area has been given a new lease of life thanks to landmark buildings, laid-back pubs, trendy bars and stylish restaurants.

3 | Angel of the North

At 54m wide and 20m high, it's hard to miss Sir Antony Gormley's iconic work of public art, dominating the skyline as you approach from the South. A proud, awe-inspiring sight. (p15)

4 | BALTIC & Sage Gateshead

Iconic buildings and cultural jewels in the Quayside's crown, BALTIC's ever-changing calendar of contemporary art exhibitions and Sage Gateshead's enviable programme of live music events provide artistic inspiration for all tastes. (p15 / p27)

5 | Grey Street & Grainger Town

Elegant Grey Street in Grainger Town was voted Britain's finest street by Radio 4 listeners thanks to its magnificently preserved Georgian architecture. The historic heart of the city also houses the Victorian Grainger Market and the Grade I listed Theatre Royal. (p39)

6 | Great North Museum: Hancock

Explore natural history and ancient civilisations, world cultures and amazing geological and archaeological collections. Visitors of all ages will enjoy the planetarium, life-sized T-Rex skeleton and virtual Hadrian's Wall. Changing exhibitions and regular lectures will educate and fascinate. (p15)

7 | Life Science Centre

The award-winning Life Science Centre brings learning to life for a fun family day out. The centre offers excellent exhibitions, a 4D motion simulator ride, live science shows, the North's biggest planetarium and even an outdoor ice skating rink during the winter. (p19)

8 | intu Metrocentre

Europe's largest indoor shopping and leisure complex is packed with high-street favourites, designer names, quirky boutiques, an IMAX cinema and over 60 restaurants and cafés. Shopping has never been so much fun! (p30)

9 | St James' Park

Home of Newcastle United, St James' Park's white cantilever roof, the largest in Europe, is visible across the city. Take in a match or visit for a tour. Howay the lads! (p35)

10 | The Ouseburn

Home to Seven Stories National Centre for Children's Books and Stepney Bank Stables, the tranquil Ouseburn Valley is a favourite with families during the day. As the clock ticks round, it becomes a mecca for music and real ale lovers with venues including The Cluny and The Tyne Bar offering great live music.

Explore a little further

There's even more to do right on our doorstep; from rugged countryside to fabulous beaches, historic market towns and intriguing attractions...

The traditional seaside village of Tynemouth is a particular highlight thanks to its vibrant weekend market and dramatic Anglo-Saxon priory and castle (p42), not to mention quirky shops, great bars and a thriving surf scene. Enjoy seafront strolls including the exciting low-tide causeway walk to St Mary's Lighthouse (p42) in Whitley Bay. A visit to the chippy is a must, just watch out for those seagulls!

The lively coastal town of South Shields has stunning reconstructions at Arbeia Roman Fort (p40) and family attractions aplenty. Enjoy a treat of delicious homemade ice cream at Minchella & Co, or a tasty curry from one of the many Indian restaurants on the famous Ocean Road.

There's a beautiful sandy beach at Sunderland, our city by the sea, and culture in abundance thanks to the superb Sunderland Museum and Winter Gardens, the artistic treasures of National Glass Centre (p21) and the historic 7th-century St Peter's Church.

The Northumberland coastline is equally as stunning; a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty full of craggy splendour and dramatic seascapes. Award-winning, golden, sandy beaches shelter abundant wildlife and historic castles including the picturesque ruins of Dunstanburgh and the grand splendour of Bamburgh.

The awe-inspiring UNESCO World Heritage Site of Hadrian's Wall also snakes its way across Northumberland, taking in some magnificent scenery as well as forts and settlements on the way.

Hadrian's Wall

Durham Cathedral

A region of unspoilt natural beauty, the towering forests and peaceful landscape offer an opportunity to get away from the hustle and bustle of city life.

There's plenty to explore here though; fans of Harry Potter and history buffs alike will love the spectacular Alnwick Castle (p40) (the gothic castle was a location for the film's quidditch scenes); the contemporary Alnwick Garden (p19), with its charming treehouse, cascading water features and themed gardens, offers something different in every season.

If you're looking to blow those cobwebs away and get back to nature, look no further than Kielder Water and Forest Park (p45), home to the darkest skies in England. Viewing the protected Northumberland International Dark Sky Park in all its glory at Kielder Observatory will take your breath away; while the combination of 250 square miles of forest and Northern Europe's biggest man-made lake will delight fans of the great outdoors. Pack up a picnic and enjoy rugged walks and water sports.

The Gateshead countryside is another fantastic place to enjoy the great outdoors, with ponds, woodlands and wildflower meadows. Red kites fly where coke works once belched smoke while the Derwent Walk winds through farmland past the National Trust's Gibside estate (p39).

Yet another UNESCO World Heritage Site can be found on a short trip down the A1 to Durham, where the magnificent Norman castle and cathedral nestle amidst the medieval town's cobbled streets, filled with quirky shops and cafés.

Travelling a few miles outside Durham will transport you to another time, thanks to Beamish's nostalgic attractions (p41). At the open-air museum, visitors can experience North East life as it was during the 1820s, 1900s and 1940s; catch a tram, visit the farm and take some old-fashioned sweets home!

Visitor Attractions

Marvellous museums and galleries galore!

Sir Antony Gormley's Angel of the North extends a warm welcome to arriving visitors! The Quayside's famous bridges and surrounding architecture are always worth a stroll and there's more eye-catching art at the boundary-pushing BALTIC Centre for Contemporary Art. Uncover dinosaur skeletons and world cultures at Great North Museum: Hancock and play and invent at Discovery Museum; there are surprises in store for young and old alike at Life Science Centre and Seven Stories, The National Centre for Children's Books.

Music lovers are spoilt for choice! As well as being home to Royal Northern Sinfonia, Sage Gateshead's iconic building plays host to a diverse range of live music, from opera and folk to classical and alternative. Metro Radio Arena is the region's largest concert and exhibition centre, welcoming pop and rock concerts as well as humongous stage shows like Disney On Ice.

A gem from Newcastle's industrial heritage, Robert Stephenson's workshop has recently reopened providing the city with its newest arts and music centre - The Boiler Shop.

The Ouseburn Valley is the area's artistic and musical hub; The Cluny hosts a diverse range of live music almost every night; The Cumberland Arms is a favourite for folkies; or enjoy a summer BBQ and outdoor stage at The Tyne Bar. You can read more about venues in 'the Ouseburn' in the 'nightlife' section (p54-59).

In the mood for a giggle? Let The Stand Comedy Club keep you rolling in the aisles, thanks to popular comedians and up-and-coming performers just waiting to tickle your funny bone.

Nightlife

Have a canny night on the Toon!

We Geordies are well known for our hospitality, and there's something for everyone to enjoy. From traditional pubs and real ale, to live music bars and partying 'til dawn; we've got it covered! Check out the roster of craft beer, street food, live music and DJ events at Wylam Brewery's Palace of Arts, and keep an eye out for superstar DJs that grace clubs like Digital, Cosmic Ballroom and theCUT. Rest assured, you'll never be far away from a 'mint' night out!

Symbols key

M Nearest Metro Station Q Nearest Quaylink Bus Stop

The Quayside is fast becoming the place to sup a trendy craft brew at the likes of BrewDog, The Bridge Tavern and The Redhouse; while further along the river, Pitcher & Piano offers an unrivalled view of the stunning riverfront. The Ouseburn Valley's Free Trade boasts a top selection of local ales and one of the region's best beer gardens, while Tyne Bar's outdoor stage and barbecue, the laid-back vibe of The Cumberland Arms and the music-loving Cluny (p26) ensure the area's always jumping!

In the centre of town, Collingwood Street's 'Diamond Strip' features stylish cocktail bars like Tokyo, Perdu and Florita's, while just next door in the area around Central Station, Town Wall and The Forth offer up hip local beers and a cool clientele.

Experiencing some typical northern weather? The Gate's indoor complex of bars, clubs and restaurants will keep that frock dry; and if you just want to party all night long, the raucous Bigg Market's the place to be!

The numerous bars and clubs around Times Square form NewcastleGateshead's gay scene - the unofficial 'gay capital' of the North East. Dance all night long at SR44 or Powerhouse, the biggest gay club in town. Most of the bars are open late every night of the week and weekends offer cabaret on tap at Boulevard.

You'll find many of our favourite pubs in the 'where to eat' section (p47-53) of the guide because of the outstanding food on their menus.
